Dear Executive Recruiter:

I am in the process of seeking a social services position where I can use my skills in:

- Counseling – 12 years' experience in helping crime victims, youth diversion programs, mental health programs, and homeless orientation for public and private agencies.
- Working with the developmental disabled – Coached disabled adults in basic job skills, food preparation and shopping, maintenance of medical health, basic hygiene, and appearance.
- Community facilitating – Conducted workshops on child protection, home ownership and community forums.
- Administrative and clerical – 17 years' experience in case management and supervision, typing, filing, telephone skills and e-mail.
- Computer – Internet, Outlook, Word, Excel and data entry.
- Home support – Provided home support for mentally disabled and autistic adults.
- Other – Bilingual in Spanish and English; possess a Bachelor of Arts degree, a driver's license and insurance; and trained in CPR and public speaking.

If you are working on filling a position for a proven and dedicated social services worker, I would welcome hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Jack Jefferson
